Dear L. D.:

I will speak for the Sunday morning worship service at the Broadway church on September 18 and will use the lesson on total commitment. I understand that you will send someone to Jefferson City for me and that we will return to Lubbock early Saturday morning. My contact in Jefferson City, Missouri, is Mr. James Swafford, 320 Dix Road, and his telephone numbers are 636-8446 and 636-3076, Area Code 314. Please have the person coming to get me call upon arrival, and we will be happy to meet him and provide him a place to stay on Friday night.

I am looking forward with great anticipation to our week end in Lubbock. I pray that we will greatly encourage the students and enlarge their vision of the Christian's role on the university campus.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen:

By this time you know that you are scheduled to preach at the Sunday morning services at Broadway on September 18. You will speak enough times during your two days with us to have preached a full week's meeting sermons. I would like to encourage you to deliver the message that you presented at the Teacher's Workshop in Abilene at the Sunday morning worship services. I feel that this lesson is very vital to the church of today and is much needed by the congregation at Broadway. I also feel that you can present this in a manner that will be very acceptable to the Broadway membership.

We have arranged for a graduate student who is a pilot to fly to Jefferson City on Friday and bring you to Lubbock on Saturday morning early. I presume that this arrangement will be satisfactory to you.

We are looking forward to working with you in our college retreat.

Humbly yours,

L. D. McCoy
